

ZONAL WORKSHOP FOR
SENSITIZATION OF STAKEHOLDERS OF BIODIVERSITY

13th February, 2014
Forest IB, Diphu

1. The Assam State Biodiversity Board in collaboration with Forest Department, Karbi Anglong Autonomous Hill Council, organized a Zonal Workshop at Forest IB, Diphu which was the fifth such workshop of the series to be organized all over Assam.
2. The objective of the workshop was to sensitize the stakeholders of Biodiversity such as :
 - a. Government Departments namely Forests, Agriculture, Horticulture, Veterinary, Fishery, Educational & Research Institutions
 - b. Representatives of local bodies i. e. Panchayats, BMCs
 - c. NGOs, Eminent Citizens and Representatives of Media
3. The workshop spell out roles and responsibilities of the stakeholders for conservation of biodiversity in general and for the following in particular:
 - a. Constitution of Biodiversity Management Committees (BMCs).
 - b. Preparation of People's Biodiversity Registers (PBRs)
 - c. Roles and other functions of BMCs
 - d. Technical Support Groups (TSG)
 - e. Biodiversity Action Plan
 - f. Operational Guidelines for BMCs

Few Photographs of the Workshop

